2011 Lithuanian Rally Championship REGULATIONS

21.2. In the classifications “Class Personal I drivers” and “Class Personal II drivers”, when less than 5 (five) crews participate in separate class of the group, the points are calculated as follows:

- 1st place – 15 points
- 2nd place – 12,5 points
- 3rd place – 11 points
- 4th place – 10 points

21.3. In the classifications “Overall Personal I drivers” and “Overall Personal II drivers”, “AWD Overall Personal I drivers” and “AWD Overall Personal II drivers”, “2WD Personal I drivers” and “2WD Personal II drivers” the points are calculated according to 19.1 point.

22. The calculation of points at the end of LARC:

22.1. In the classifications “Class Personal I drivers” and “Class Personal II drivers” at the end of LARC the points are calculated according to the formula:

$$T = \sum_{i=1}^n R_i - R_b$$

as:

T - final amount of points;

n - a number of LARC events;

$R_i$  - points gained in the event;

$R_b$  - points gained in the event which was the worst for the entrant.

$R_b = \text{MIN}(R_1, R_2, \dots, R_n)$ , if entrant gained points in all LARC events;

$R_b = 0$ , if entrant has not gained points in any event, i.e. if entrant has not participated in the event or has not finished it.

If entrant is eliminated from the event by BSC decision due to inappropriate behaviour or fraud, the points which are not gained are not calculated as  $R_b=0$ , i.e.  $R_b$  is calculated according to the formula  $R_b = \text{MIN}(R_1, R_2, \dots, R_{n-1})$ .

LARC is considered to have occurred in the class of the group if 5 (five) and more crews participated in not less than three LARC events. Entrants, participating in classifications “Class Personal I drivers” and “Class Personal II drivers”, are classified for LARC if they participate in not less than three events.

22.2. In classifications “AWD Overall Personal I drivers” and “AWD Overall Personal II drivers”, “2WD Personal I drivers” and “2WD Personal II drivers” at the end of LARC the points are calculated according to 20.1 point.

23. Team classifications are divided into Event team classification and LARC team classification.

24. The calculation of points of Event team classification.

24.1. Event team classification is counted according to amount of team points gained by crews.

24.2. The calculation of amount of Team points:

- a) The points of three crews (of four crews which are present in “Team application”), which receive the most points in the event, are calculated;
- b) Only two of the crews can be the entrants of N4 or Open class. If there are more than two crews of N4 or Open class in “Team application”, the amount of points of two crews (participating in N4 or Open class), which get the highest amount of points in the event, is calculated. In this case, if there is a crew which is present in “Team application” and participate in any other class, the points gained by this crew are added to the sum of team points;
- c) Team points gained by the crew in LARC - the sum of points of classifications “Class Personal I drivers” and “Overall Personal I drivers” of the event;

24.3. The position of the team in LARC event is estimated according to the highest amount of “Team points”. If teams collect the same amount of points in LARC event, the higher place is given to the team, the crew of which holds the higher place in overall classification.

24.4. The team gains points of team classification of LARC event according to the position in LARC event according to the the table in 19.1 point.

25. The estimation of team position in LARC.

2011 Lithuanian Rally Championship REGULATIONS

25.1. The final team position in LARC is estimated according to the highest amount of points of team classifications of all events. The position of teams, which receive the same amount of points, are estimated according to the position taken in "Event team classification" in the last LARC event. The positions of teams, which receive the same amount of points in LARC team classification and did not participate in the last LARC event, are estimated according to taken positions (first, second, third place etc.) in particular LARC events.

RUNNING OF LARČ EVENTS

26. LARC event is regulated by the organiser approved by Rally committee according to the conditions set by Rally committee.

27. The recommended overall length of special stages (SS) of LARC event is not less than 90 km. SS can not fully or partly repeat more than two times, except stages covered by asphalt or concrete.

28. Each LARC event is held according to the supplementary regulations approved by organiser and agreed with Rally, Referees committees and LASF general secretary. Supplementary regulations are published on LASF website not later than 4 (four) weeks till the beginning of LARC event.

29. Seeking for a honest sport contest LASF Rally committee and organiser publishes the local zones or map of roads, which are prohibited to visit, not later than 4 (four) weeks till the beginning of LARC events.

30. The restart in the second round for entrants, who retired from LARC in the first round after the accident or technical problems of the car, is possible only after following conditions:

- for every uncompleted special stage in the first round a crew gets a 5 min. penalty, which is added to the best time of the entrant of that class. If an entrant is alone in his/her class, the penalty is added to the best time of the lower class;

- if entrant retires in the section after the last SS finish of the round (except the last round) and finish of the round, 5 min penalty is given;

- in all cases, if entrant retires from the competition in the course of first round after the accident or technical problems of car, but he/she wants to continue competition, he/she must get a permission of head physician and technical commission chairman of LARC events.
